

MARE policy day 2013

Giving Small-Scale Fisheries a Place:

The knowledge and governance challenges

Tuesday 25 June 2013, 09:00-18:00

Programme:

- 8:30 Registration
- 9:00 Welcome remarks
- 9:10 Opening address – small-scale fisheries in the new EU Common Fisheries Policy (Maria Damanaki, TBC)
- 9:30 Keynote lecture on definition of small-scale fisheries, knowledge and governance challenges in Europe and beyond (David Symes)
- 10:15 New approaches to small scale fisheries in the Netherlands (Jaap Vegter)
- 10:30 New forms of knowledge for small-scale fisheries– some lessons from case studies around Europe (Steve Mackinson)
- 10:45 The role of transdisciplinarity in small-scale fisheries research (Ratana Chuenpagdee)
- 11:00 Panel discussion with speakers
- 12:00 Lunch
- 13:00 Panel presentation and roundtable discussion: “What does the CFP really mean to the future of small-scale fisheries in Europe?” (Panelists: Brian O’Riordan, Jerry Percy TBC, Elisa Roller TBC)
- 14:00 Small-group discussion: five breakout groups to discuss the following topics
 - How to encourage youth participation in SSF? Barriers, opportunities, knowledge and policies
 - How to improve the position of women in SSF? Barriers, opportunities, knowledge and policies
 - How to make the rights-based approach work for SSF? Barriers, opportunities, knowledge and policies
 - How to improve the market shares for SSF? Barriers, opportunities, knowledge and policies
 - How to sustain SSF communities and their cultural heritage? Barriers, opportunities, knowledge and policies
- 15:30 Tea/coffee
- 16:00 Report back from break out session
- 17:15 Conclusion, reflection and closing
- 17:30 Drinks
- 18:00 Buffet with small-scale fisheries catches